SANCTUARY IN POLITICS COURSE

Are you a refugee, asylum seeker or migrant to Ireland and would you like to

- Improve your public speaking and presentation skills?
 - Find out how politics works in Ireland?
- Get your voice heard by the decision-makers?
 - Learn how to work with the media?
- Know more about lobbying and campaigns?
- Make new friends from all over the world?

This course will give newcomers an introduction to Irish politics, media, social campaigning and related topics. It is free of charge to all participants. Tea, coffee and snacks will be provided as well as lunch on the final day, when certificates will be presented.

The course will take place in Trinity College Dublin on the following Saturday mornings (10am to 1pm):
25 February, 4 March, 11 March, 25 March and 1 April
(final session will be at Glencree Peace Centre in the Wicklow Mountains - transport provided from Dublin City Centre).

HOW TO APPLY

Please send us your name and contact details including mobile phone number and write one short paragraph explaining why you would like to attend the course. Places on this course are limited. You are advised to apply well before the 20 February deadline.
