

Beyond the Single Story

Intercultural Education Conference

January 25th and 26th, 2019

DCU, St Patrick's Campus, Drumcondra, Dublin

A conference of the Centre for Human Rights and Citizenship Education, DCU Institute of Education.

The conference welcomes teachers, teacher educators, academics, students, children, artists, performers, writers, NGOs, parents, principals and others working in or concerned about intercultural education within schools.

The conference is free but booking is essential and places are limited.

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Amanullah De SONDY, University College Cork
Hannagh McGinley, NUI Galway

Conference Includes:

Migration - an exploration of the lived experiences of young migrants portrayed in dance and spoken word by Wave.

A parallel children's writing conference for 8-12 year olds run by Fighting Words.

A panel discussion with Melatu Uche Okorie, Cecelia Gavigan, Tian Yu Lloyd.

Food from OUR TABLE, a non-profit, non-denominational organisation that aims to build an awareness of food in multicultural Ireland.

To book please click here or

<https://goo.gl/forms/p30MZUe17JbmTCbD3>

For more information please email:

rowan.oberman@dcu.ie, benjamin.mallon@dcu.ie or Malgosia.MacHowska-Kosciak@dcu.ie